There are rumors that the swamp once ran red with blood. It’s time to find out if the rumors are true. The locals refuse to speak about the horrors that once filled the bayou, whispers of cursers and an unnamed voodoo priestess. However, refusing to talk about something does not make it go away. The evil that lies in wait for hunters for new visitors. The priestess dreamed of times gone by, times when the blood of the innocent once flowed through the bayou. Located by Snoopie’s Space Rugs.

It’s always Halloween on Hemlock Lane. Our story picks up where the Fairy Tales ended, our clan of distraught witches were given a new start in this very wacky halfway house for wayward souls. Throughout the years the residents have worked to make their new home a welcoming place for their next victims. It’s time to find out if it’s a treat or a trick. Located to the right of Drop Tower.

The room service menu has been prepared and the staff is eagerly awaiting your arrival. Welcome to the Inn at Darkside Manor! Enjoy the best of yesteryear and sit back and enjoy a classic in our impressive Library. Just be warned – once you check in… you will never check out. Located at the Action Theater.

It started as a high school science project gone bad. From a simple experiment to an outbreak that would cover the world in days. No one was prepared for the chaos that ensued, the dead were no longer dead and no one was safe. Welcome to where it all started… welcome to the last school that you will ever attend. It’s true what they say, high school never ends! Located behind WindSeeker.

Take a drive on the beautiful Blue Ridge Parkway and experience the pages and sounds of the mountains after dark. A warning to any visitors: According to local legend creatures lurk in the woods at night, rumored to prey on drivers who take a wrong turn. Sit back relax and ignore the screams of other visitors as you take a ride on the Tollway Terror. Located at Blue Ridge Tollway.

The harvest has begun and you are the new crop. Weave through the rows of decaying corn and hope that you can find your way out. The people and creatures that live here are determined to rid their fields of anything they see as a threat and you just made the list. Located on International Street.

Are you frightened of the monsters that lurk under your bed? Do you ever have the feeling that something bad is about to happen? Are you frightened of the things that go bump in the night? Are you still convinced that there is a丝丝 man in the closet? The things that go bump in the night are waiting for you in this darkness filled nightmare of a haunted house. Will anyone be there to hear you scream? What can’t you see might hurt you… and this case it will be located by WindSeeker.

More than half a century ago an infamous riot claimed the lives of dozens of men at Djosveal State Penitentiary. Following this massacre, the prison was abandoned and left to crumble. Today the prison is finally being reopened and you’re the first to get inside. All visitors are encouraged to stay on the marked paths, or you may find yourself the next victim of this never-ending Lockdown. Located at Flight of Fear.

This is not another story from your history books. The future is now and the revolution has begun. The creatures of your nightmares have declared war and man has taken up the challenge. Only one can survive in this steam filled alternate reality. Located on Center Street.

Forced from their ancestral home this small clan of vampires has taken refuge in the dark. The vampires have been without blood for far too long. Their sharp minds are clouded with hunger but lucky their next meal is only a heartbeat away. Located in the Arbor.

The coven has gathered and the celebration has begun. Our raving troups of witches has taken to the streets in search of a little mischief. Don’t worry, they have completed all of their work and are here to prepare for the coming solstice. You have found them on a very special day indeed – a day of celebration. Be on the lookout, you never know where the coven will turn up next.

Join us each evening as the clock strikes 7 for the summoning of the monsters. The overlord will call forth all of his minions and send them into the night. Presented nightly at the Effel Tower on International Street at 7pm.
